MINUTES OF DISSENT

(I)

A note on the proposed Double Member Constituency for the Lok Sabha in Rajasthan at Serial No. 8 in Table A.

The following points are submitted for consideration of the Commission in regard to the proposals for the delimitation of the constituencies in Rajasthan for the Lok Sabha with particular reference to the proposed double member constituency at Serial No. 8 (Sawai Madhopur) in Table A.

The inclusion of the Dausa Sub-Division and the non-inclusion of the Tonk District in the said constituency at Serial No. 8 (Sawai Madhopur) is against the provision of Clause (d) of section 8(2) of the Delimitation Commission Act on the following grounds:—

- (i) that clause (d) of section 8(2) lays it down as a mandatory rule that “constituencies in which a seat is reserved either for the Scheduled Caste or for the scheduled tribe shall, as far as practicable be located in areas in which the population of the scheduled castes or as the case may be of scheduled tribes is most concentrated”. The inclusion of Dausa Sub-Division and the non-inclusion of the Tonk District is against the letter and spirit of this provision.
- (ii) that according to the statement showing population figures, Tonk District has the highest concentration of scheduled caste population in the State—the percentage of scheduled caste population being 17·35 as against 16·80 in Sawai Madhopur district (which has the second highest concentration of scheduled castes). In Jaipur District the concentration of scheduled castes population is only 12·85 per cent. and in Dausa Sub-Division it is 13·37 per cent. only. In the light of these figures there is no justification whatsoever for the inclusion of Dausa Sub-Division and non-inclusion of the Tonk District in the proposed double member constituency.

- (iii) that Sawai Madhopur District and Tonk District are contiguous to each other and constitute a geographically compact and homogeneous area, well served with "facilities of communications". A direct railway line connects Sawai Madhopur with Niwai, in Tonk District, and metalled road connect the various important places in Sawai Madhopur and Tonk Districts.
- (iv) that non-inclusion of Tonk District in the double member constituency would deprive the scheduled castes population of this district of their right to be included in the reserved member constituency—a right which has been conferred upon them by the Statute.
- (v) that by the inclusion of Dausa Sub-Division in the proposed double member constituency of Sawai Madhopur the interests of the people of Jaipur District, will be prejudicially affected as will be evident from the following:—

The Jaipur District, having 18 State Legislature seats is entitled clearly to two whole seats for the Lok Sabha. The inclusion of Dausa Sub-Division in the proposed double member constituency deprives the people of Jaipur District, of their due and just rights of representation in the Lok Sabha. This will be clear further from the following facts:—

- (a) 4 State Assembly seats in Dausa Sub-Division of this District are being tagged on to the 8 Assembly seats of Sawai Madhopur, 2 seats of Dig Sub-Division of Bharatpur District and 2 seats of the Alwar District, to make the double member constituency;
- (b) 4 State Assembly seats of the Sambhar and Kishan-garh Sub-Divisions of this district have been attached to the Tonk District to make one Lok Sabha constituency for Tonk District;

- (c) 2 seats of the Shahpura Sub-Division have been appended to Sikar District to make a constituency;
- (d) The remaining 8 are being left to make but one whole Lok Sabha seat only for the District.

The district is thus deprived of its right of having another whole Lok Sabha seat. It does not even have an equal, not to say a dominant, share in any of the other three constituencies in which its portions have been included according to the present proposals. On the other hand the populations of the portions of the districts included in the Sikar and Sawai Madhopur constituencies comprise hardly one-fourth of the total area or the population of those constituencies, and can thus hardly entertain any hope of effectively influencing the result of the election in or the choice of the members from these constituencies. In the third constituency the Tonk District has a dominant voice in so far as the population of 40,00,947, have been joined to a population of 3,73,467 belonging to Sambhar and Kishangarh Sub-Division of Jaipur District which are clearly outnumbered. The Tonk District by itself having only four assembly seats is not entitled to a Lok Sabha constituency, but according to the latest proposals it is getting a dominant share in one.

The said proposals thus offend the very rules and principles laid down in the Instructions for making out delimitation proposals particularly those contained in para. 8 and clause 6 of para 14 of the Commission's own instructions for the delimitation of constituencies.

It is also proposed for the consideration of the Commission that in delimiting this constituency it will be more appropriate and justifiable if in place of the 2 constituencies of Dig Sub-Division of Bharatpur District, the Nadbai and Weir Tehsils with a portion of Bayana Tehsil of the same District (which constituted a double member Legislative Assembly constituency in 1952 elections) should be substituted. This would make the constituency geographically more compact and well served by communication by road (Agra-Jaipur Road) and by rail (Broad Gauge Delhi-Bombay and Meter Gauge Agra-Bandikui). Deeg Sub-Division is far off and separated from Sawai Madhopur District and is not at all connected with it by any road or Rail links.

I have gone through the draft notification containing the Commission's proposals relating to the distribution of the 21 seats allotted to the State of Rajasthan in the House of the People and the 168 seats assigned to the Legislative Assembly of this State. So far as the Parliamentary constituencies in the State of Rajasthan are concerned I have nothing to say except that the Bikaner Parliamentary constituency which is proposed to be double-member constituency should not be given effect to and in its place the existing Ganganagar-Jhunjhunu should be delimited in the following manner:—

This constituency will be comprised of the Ganganagar district (excluding the Raisinghnagar and Karanpur Assembly constituencies), Rajgarh and Churu Assembly constituencies of the Churu district and all the Assembly constituencies of the Jhunjhunu district and one Assembly constituency of Fatehpur of the Sikar district.

This constituency is better from the point of view of contiguity. The concentration of the Scheduled Castes in this constituency is practically the same as is found in the proposed Bikaner double member parliamentary constituency.

For your ready reference, I enclose herewith a statement showing the Assembly constituencies together with their population and Scheduled Castes figures.

As regards the Assembly Constituencies I would like to draw your attention to the proposed Assembly constituencies of the Banswada district wherein the Banswada Assembly constituency has been made a single-member constituency reserved for Scheduled Tribes only. I feel if Banswada Assembly constituency is joined together either with Gadhi or Ghatole Assembly constituency it will do justice both to the people of the Banswada Tahsil and also to the Scheduled Tribes. The reasons are two-fold, viz. (1) Every person who is not Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe will have an opportunity to seek election; and (2) Banswada town had been the capital of the erstwhile State of Banswada and it also is the headquarters of the district. Snatching away the right of seeking election from the people of Banswada would not be justifiable in any case.

A note on the location of a Double Member Constituency for State Legislative Assembly in Bharatpur District.

In the proposals of the Commission a Double Member Constituency is being provided at Serial No. 54 in Table B. It is shown to comprise of the Rupbas and Weir Tehsils and a portion of the Bayana Tehsil. That the aforesaid proposal of the Commission is against the provisions of the Delimitation Commission Act and needs to be revised on other grounds also will be evident from the following:—

In Bharatpur District the scheduled castes population is distributed according to the following percentages in the

of Sec. 8(2) of the Delimitation Commission Act. Clause (d) of Sec. 8(2) of the Delimitation Commission Act makes it obligatory that the reserved constituency "shall, as far as practicable, be located in areas in which the population of the scheduled castes, or as the case may be of scheduled tribes, is most concentrated". There is no provision whatsoever in excluding Rupbas, which is a reserved constituency and including Nadbai in the Doultabad constituency. The mere fact that Nadbai is in a reserved constituency SUBJECT: Alterations in the boundary limits of the Jodhpur City 'A' and Jodhpur City 'B' constituencies.

The Committee for the delimitation of Constituencies in Rajasthan has approved of the following alterations in the existing constituencies of Jodhpur City 'A' and Jodhpur City 'B'. The existing constituency of Jodhpur City 'A' consists of Wards Nos. 1, 2, 3, 5, 7, 9 and 10 and Jodhpur City 'B' consists of Wards Nos. 4, 6, 8, 11, and 12. The members of the Committee, it appears, have considered that the non-contiguity in the number of Wards may be due to the non-contiguity of the areas of the constituency. They have, therefore, suggested that Jodhpur City 'A' should consist of Wards Nos. 1, 2, 3 and 12 and Jodhpur City 'B' should consist of 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11. A closure study of the wards and the area would reveal that the existing arrangement is not only contiguous but also satisfies all the conditions laid down under the Representation of the Peoples Act 1951 and also the rules made thereunder. The area is contiguous, the strength of the population is almost equal in each constituency and a happy balance has been maintained amongst the members of the different communities. The Wards have been so nicely arranged and grouped together that one particular community cannot have supremacy over the other because of its numerical strength. With the change of these limits into the limits now formed, the development of the city would receive a set-back. Ward No. 12 is a ward of recent growth. People are culturally, economically and educationally developed whereas Wards Nos. 1, 2 and 3 are in the old city and the people are mostly economically backward and culturally and intellectually undeveloped. Grouping together of two different sets of people will not bring happy results. Besides two major communities will predominate this constituency—one would be Samajists in outlook and the other, Muslims. Grouping together of these two may entail bitterness and communal trouble making life miserable. The combination of two major communities in one constituency will permanently oust candidates from minor communities out of the field. Ward No. 12 comprises of the area outside the old city walls which is very long extending over the length of about 10 miles.

I, therefore, consider that any alteration in the boundaries of the existing constituencies is unwarranted and there is no necessity of introducing any change. I feel that this question has not been fully examined and desire that the Commission may re-examine it and disapprove of the changes suggested by the Committee for altering the boundary limits of the existing constituencies of Jodhpur City 'A' and Jodhpur City 'B'. I therefore desire that this note of dissent be placed on record.

I beg to submit the following comments and Dissenting proposals regarding the Territorial Demarcation of Assembly Constituencies and the reservation of one seat to the Scheduled caste in the Bharatpur District; which may kindly be published along with the Commission's Proposals under Sec. 8(3) of the Act.

Since the population of Bharatpur District has not risen considerably, there is nothing that can be said against the total number of allotted 10 seats.

There is much that can be stated against the proposals of the Commission. The principles which led the Commission to make new Demarcation of constituencies is difficult to understand as there is no prima facie cause for such drastic General reshuffling of the boundaries of the constituencies on which the previous General Elections were held.

The guiding principle for the Delimitation of Constituencies has been the increase in the population. While the population of Bharatpur Sub-Division has remained practically constant, the population of Dholpur Sub-Division of Bharatpur District has increased and this increase in later's population has probably led to these territorial changes in the constituencies of Bharatpur District. Dholpur Sub-division rightly deserves a general seat, which cannot be given to it unless a part of Bharatpur Sub-Division is added to it (which was not in the last General Elections) and that area has to be contiguous to it to make the requisite number for one representation. Therefore the only area nearest is the Bayana tehsil, the part of which must be added to Baseri tehsil to make it into a constituency and this contiguous part is that half which was formerly included in the former Rupbas constituency.

Up to this place, I agree with the proposals of the Commission; or in other words, I have no dissenting note to submit as for as Dholpur Sub-division is concerned. The consequences of adding half of Bayana tehsil to Baseri constituency have been that the former Rupbas constituency, which included half of Bayana tehsil has to be re-organised into suitable and sizeable constituency to make up the requisite population for a representation. This can only be by adding areas of those tehsils which are nearest to it, keeping the guiding facts of public and administrative convenience; and also communication facilities. But this has not been done in the proposals of the Commission. While the Commission has re-organised and given undue importance to the left out half of Bayana tehsil with lesser area and population by re-organising it into an unwieldy double member constituency, by including Rupbas and Weir tahsils but has completely overlooked the claims of Rupbas tehsil to be made into a single member constituency with greater General Population than only half of Bayana tehsils and less Scheduled caste population than other tehsils. It is at this place that I beg to differ with the Commission's proposals.

Rupbas tehsil is surrounded by three tehsils, viz., Bayana, Nadbai and Bharatpur tehsils. The part of Bayana tehsil left out from Baseri constituency, cannot be added to it to make the requisite number for General Representation as the only contiguous area to it has been added to the Commission's proposals to Baseri constituency and the left out half area is not in contiguity with it. Thus the only two contiguous tehsils to it are Nadbai and Bharatpur. A part of any one of these two tehsils could be added to it to make up the requisite number for a single member General Constituency. But instead, it has been included into a double member constituency with name changed into Bayana constituency to cloak all the drawbacks resulting from such a Delimitation.

Nadbai tehsil cannot lay claims to be a separate constituency with single representation as the total population of this tehsil is only 54,859; while that of Rupbas tehsil is 62,454, and also the later was in existence in the previous General Elections, while the former Nadbai is a new creation by the Commission. Thus Nadbai with less population and area, without prejudice to anything, can conveniently be divided into two parts and each portion be amalgamated into some other tehsil with larger population and better claims to be formed into a constituency. The Commission has followed this very principle of dividing minor tehsils with insufficient population; as for example, the Commission, in its proposals for Delimitation, have divided Nagar tehsil with a population of 54,833 between Kama constituency and Deeg constituency, even when such division has led to only one representative to a population of 101,985 in the case of the former constituency, and in the later's case the creation of a new constituency, i.e., Nadbai. As to why the Commission has deviated from this principle is not easy to understand.

The Bharatpur tehsil with a total population of 140,012 has more claims for its division; without losing a representative, because of its larger voting population. The Commission has in its proposals taken out certain villages from it and has added them to the newly created constituency of Nadbai, but it is from the wrong side. The villages which are in contiguity to the Rupbas tehsil can and should be added to it to make it an independent constituency with a single member representation, and also to have the requisite number of voters between the maximum of 97,000 and the minimum of 85,000. This will also reduce the population of Bharatpur tehsil and maintain it as a single member constituency as embodied in the Commission's Proposals, by including those villages which are now excluded to form a new Nadbai, constituency. Thus this proposal does not in any way disturb the existing Delimitation as far as Bharatpur constituency is concerned. Only Rupbas tehsil as a constituency, comes in to replace Nadbai constituency on just grounds.

Thus as general constituencies, there has to be only two. The case for Rupbas as a separate constituency is very strong and cannot be denied because of the facts stated above; and the next is the Bharatpur constituency. Thus the two new constituencies, embodied in the Commission's proposals, viz., Bayana and Nadbai cannot claim to be constituencies on the grounds of population and area and against the just claims of Rupbas tehsil.

The third place where I disagree with the Commission's proposals is the giving of representation to the Scheduled caste in the Bayana constituency; or in other words the inclusion of Rupbas tehsil in the double member Bayana constituency. The case for Rupbas tehsil as a separate single member General constituency has been stated previously. By making Bayana (a half portion only for other half included in Baseri constituency) into a double member constituency, there will be inconveniences, to the public and the administration; besides the difficulties of communications for it includes not only the Rupbas tehsil but the Weir tehsil too. Moreover on grounds of Scheduled caste population the present Bayana constituency should not be created; for representation to the Scheduled castes must be given only in those parts where the concentration of their population is the largest, keeping also in view that the area included to form constituency are contiguous. The Commission has overlooked these facts. The Scheduled caste population of the Rupbas tehsil is only 11,387, while in the other tehsils it is as follow:—

		% of total population
Bharatpur.	—14,599	10.43
Nadbai.	—10,344	18.84
Bayana.	—14,353	19.87
Weir.	—13,825	18.68
Deeg.	—11,955	19.01

Thus from these above figures it is clear that these tehsils have more claims for their inclusion in the double member Assembly Constituency on the basis of Scheduled caste population and its percentage to the total population than the Rupbas tehsil which is now included in the double member Bayana constituency. The division of the Bayana tehsil does not in any way change the concentration of Scheduled caste population in it. Yet it cannot claim to be a double member constituency with absolute disregard to the claims of the Weir tehsil with a total population of 74,009 and with the percentage of schedule caste at 18.68. The present redistribution takes one portion from hither and thither to jumble into constituencies without considering the claims of those tehsils having the Scheduled caste concentration a point which should not be over-looked if justice is to be done to the Scheduled castes and the General public too.

Thus from the perusal of the above facts the case of the Rupbas tehsil for a single member constituency is very strong. And thus Rupbas should be a constituency and Bayana as embodied in the Commission's proposals be deleted. The final shape should be as follows:—

I. Keeping Rupbas as a single member constituency—with a population of 62,454—which is more than Nadbai; and adding to it the villages of Bharatpur tehsils to make the requisite total population of 86,000 for a single member constituency. The inclusion of these villages will reduce the population of Bharatpur tehsil which now stands at 140,012; and those villages of Bharatpur tehsil which are included in the Nadbai constituency according to the Commission's proposals be re-included in Bharatpur tehsil to make it into one constituency, which will result in abolishing Nadbai constituency, which has no claims because of its lesser population and area.

Thus Bharatpur constituency remains as it is even with the creation of Rupbas constituency, though it includes some of its villages and abolishing Bayana constituency, and merging it as suggested later.

Now comes the question of the Reserved Seat, as to where it can be provided conveniently without prejudice to their numbers and the General public. The following can be the only Double Member Constituencies with reserved seat and they are given in the order of preference:—

I. Weir. This should be a new constituency or as it was in the previous General Elections. Weir tehsil with population of 74,009, and Scheduled caste 13,825. Nadbai tehsil with total population 54,895 and Scheduled caste 10,344, and Bayana tehsil (excluding villages included in Baseri tehsil—Commission's proposals, item (20) of Appendix).

II. Bharatpur. Bharatpur tehsil (excluding villages included in Rupbas constituency as proposed by me). Deeg tehsil and Nadbai tehsil.

This will result in Weir tehsil becoming into a single member General Constituency. The final shape of which will be as follows:—

Weir Constituency. Weir tehsil and Bayana tehsil (excluding villages included in Baseri tehsil—Commission's proposals vide item (20) Appendix).

III. Bharatpur. Bharatpur tehsil (excluding villages included in Rupbas constituency as proposed by me). Nadbai tehsil and Weir tehsil.

I submit the above proposals with the comments that the Territorial Demarcation of Assembly Constituencies by the Commission is not just either to the General public or with particular reference to the Scheduled castes. The Scheduled caste have been given representation where it is not justified by the concentration of their numbers, which has resulted in either additions or deletions of portions of tehsils not based on any principles. Bayana tehsil has been divided yet the name has been maintained uselessly and to cloak certain discrepancies which would have been glaring had it to been discarded for some other tehsils name. Similarly the small Nadbai tehsil with its small numbers is created into a new constituency against the legitimate claims of the other tehsils with bigger area and larger population like the Rupbas. Reservation of seat has been given in the Commission's proposals where the population of the Scheduled castes is sparsely concentrated or the tehsils with sparse population are included to form a constituency as against the just claims of those with larger Scheduled caste population. Moreover, the static growth of population in the Bharatpur District does not warrant any change in the Territorial boundaries of the former constituencies save the Bayana tehsil and the only replacement of Scheduled caste seat in Dholpur by a General seat. Thus the Commission should either opt for the status quo or to the proposals submitted by me—for the present, proposals of the Commission do not adhere to the salient principles which should guide in every reservation of seat or in any territorial demarcation of constituencies; and they succinctly put are :—

- (1) Scheduled caste be given representation only where they are most concentrated and at no other place,
- (2) That in Territorial Demarcation and Representation of seat, geographical compactness and physical features and area should not be lost sight of,
- (3) Communication facilities,
- (4) Administrative Convenience, and
- (5) Public Convenience.

I hereby submit my Dissenting note along with the Comments for the kind consideration of the Commission and through its publication under the Act, to the people, particularly the nine lakh voting population of Bharatpur District.
